25X1 2. [] the Shanghai office of Inturist again began to accept parcels for transmission to the USSR. Parcels may be made up by the sender or ordered through Inturist. Those ordered through Inturist are made up by the Investment and Trading Company, 9 Avenue Edward VII, and consist of the following articles: one pound of American coffee, two pounds of powdered milk, a half pound of cocoa five pounds of sugar, one pound of laundry soap, one bar of toilet soap and one towel. Each parcel costs the sender approximately CNS 1,357,000.

2. The Investment and Trading Company supplies these parcels to Inturist at a price of GNS 950,000. Postage charges are GNS 57,000 to Western USSR and GNS 32,000 to Eastern USSR. After the Investment and Trading Company's charge and the postal charges are deducted, the remaining amount is profit shared by Inturist and the Investment Trading Company.
